

SOUTH PARK TOWNSHIP LIBRARY

MUNCH AND LEARN

CULTURE

FALL SCHEDULE

Wednesdays at Noon

2575 Brownsville Road, South Park - call to register 412-833-5585

Calle Bomba

Wednesday, September 19

Geña of Calle Bomba will be here to introduce us to the culture and street music of Puerto Rico. Come enjoy the sound of her drums!

Japanese Tea

Wednesday, October 17

Learn about the history and culture of Japan as you drink authentic Japanese Tea served by Yoko Motoyama from the Japanese Association of Greater Pittsburgh.

Chinese Mid-Autumn Festival

Wednesday, September 26

The mid-autumn festival is the second most important festival in China after Chinese New Year. To the Chinese, the festival means family reunion and peace. Learn about the traditions, stories and, most importantly, the food related to this important day.

Flamenco Dance

Wednesday, October 24

Carolina Loyola-Garcia will be here to introduce and demonstrate the art of Flamenco dance.

Steel City Grooves: Celebrating Jazz Legends in Western Pennsylvania

Wednesday, October 3

Celebrate Western PA culture with the Heinz History Museum. Audio visual biographical sketches of important contributors to JAZZ with Western PA roots including greats such as Billy Eckstine, Johnny Costa, Mary Lou Williams, Henry Mancini, Ray Brown, Errol Garner, Billy Strayhorn, and Maxine Sullivan.

Conflict Kitchen

Wednesday, November 7

Dawn Weleski of Conflict Kitchen will be here to share food and innovative storytelling to engage the public in discussions about cultures and people that we often know little about.

CIVIC AND SOCIAL LITERACY

PA FORWARD
STAR PROGRAM